Authorisation

You authorise and request us, until further notice in writing, to debit from the nominated Credit Card, any amount which we may debit or charge you through the system administered by the Westpac Banking Corporation upon completion of the Direct Debit Request.

Direct Debit Arrangements

- a) We will, in accordance with the terms of the Direct Debit Request and any other Existing Agreement, periodically debit the Nominated Credit Card for the agreed amount(s).

- b) The direct debits will occur daily, weekly, monthly or as agreed. The amount debited will vary according to the amount falling due. It will include any fees or charges agreed between us.
- c) You will receive billing advices through the media you choose at the times you request. We will send you media summarising your transactions and charges for the billing period.
- d) If any direct debit falls due on a non business day, it will be direct debited to the Nominated Credit Card:
 - i. where the scheduled direct debit date and the next business day fall in different months, on the previous business day preceding the scheduled direct debit date; and
 - ii. in all other cases, on the next business day following the scheduled direct debit date.
- iv. suspension of the Direct Debit Request; or
- v. cancellation of the Direct Debit Request completely
- c) Your right to make a Change to the Direct Debit Arrangements is subject to the terms of any Existing Agreement between you and us.

Note: If you are our franchisee, reseller or customer, you may have entered into an Existing Agreement which requires you to pay us by direct debit. Accordingly, if you make a Change to the Direct Debit Arrangement (e.g. stop a debit or cancel your Direct Debit Request), you may be in breach of your Existing Agreement with us, and we may pursue any remedy we have against you under the Existing Agreement. Accordingly, we urge you to check the terms of all Existing Agreements before requesting any Change to the Direct Debit Arrangements.

Your Obligations

- a) You must ensure that:
 - i. before completing the Direct Debit Request, you check the details of your Nominated Credit Card are correct (and if you are still uncertain, that you check those details with your financial institution);
 - ii. the Nominated Credit Card can accept direct debits (your financial institution can confirm this); and
 - iii. the Nominated Credit Card has sufficient available credit on the direct debit date to allow payment to be made in accordance with the Direct Debit Request and any other Existing Agreement between you and us

Note: If you are uncertain as to when a direct debit will be processed to the Nominated Credit Card, you should check with your financial institution.

Changes to the Direct Debit Arrangements

- a) If you wish to make any Change to the Direct Debit Arrangements please call our enquiries number which is listed on the invoices and/or statements of account we issue to you.
- b) For the purpose of this clause, a "Change" means any of the following:
 - i. deferment of a direct debit;
 - ii. alteration of the Direct Debit Arrangements;
 - iii. stopping an individual direct debit;

- b) You must advise us immediately if the Nominated Credit Card is cancelled, suspended, expired, or due to expire.
- c) If any direct debit is declined by your Nominated Credit Card Issuer, we may, at our discretion, reprocess the transaction following receipt of the notification of decline, or request an alternative form of payment (e.g. financial institution cheque) from you. You must reimburse us for any transaction fees or other charges payable or paid by us in respect of the above. In addition, we may pursue any remedy we have against you under any Existing Agreement between you and us.
